The Voice of the 1031 Industry

FEA is the only national trade association dedicated to 1031 exchange practitioners.

WHAT WE OFFER: Professional development, networking, and industry updates related to 1031 exchanges.

FORMED
1989

ABOUT US: The FEA was organized to offer education to the exchange industry and the public, develop uniformity of practice within the profession, establish ethical standards for qualified intermediaries, and promote innovations in the industry.

WHO WE ARE: FEA members include qualified intermediaries, their primary tax and legal counsel, and affiliated members such as banks, syndicated Tenancy In Common and Delaware Statutory Trust sponsors, and title companies.

WHO QUALIFIES: FEA's professional membership is designed for those who provide tax or legal advice to exchangers, rather than providing or advertising their services to qualified intermediaries. Professional firms, such as a law firm or accounting firm, can also qualify under the professional advisor category.
